TODAY there will, as usual, be tea, coffee etc. after the 11.00am Mass and we hope that you will stay. There will be a retiring collection after the 11.00am Mass towards the cost of flowers for Easter.

HOW ENCOURAGING IT WAS to see so many people at Stations of the Cross last Friday evening. Let us hope that the number will continue to increase during Lent. There is no harm in hoping!

COPIES OF THE NEW BOOK, 'The Way of the Cross with the Curé d'Ars' are available for purchase from John Salmon at £4.00 each.

THE GARDEN AT HOLY TRINITY between the South Porch and the east end of the Church, has been tidied up and given a new lease of life, thanks to the efforts of Carl, Julian and Rob. They have removed many layers of cans, bottles and other rubbish, along with some very old and permanent brambles and weeds. We shall now begin plans for some new fencing and make a concerted effort to keep it looking neat and tidy. Our thanks go to them for all their hard work and determination.

THE SUNDAY MASS AT HOLY TRINITY rather suffers because many of the regular congregation do not know the hymns or the sung responses and so are too timid to join in! It has been suggested that we should form a group of singers who would be prepared to meet at a mutually convenient time to learn and practise the music and also that occasionally we should have a slot to learn some of it in place of a homily. After mass last Sunday there were the names of eight volunteers on the list: any others who would be interested in joining this choir, children or adults, please add your names and details to the list at the back of Church, and we can then work out a time and place when we could meet.

THE NEXT JUMBLE SALE will be on Saturday 22nd May, from 12.30 – 1.30pm in S. Silas Church Hall with a session to sort and price the goods on Friday 21st 12.00 – 3.00pm. I hope this will be convenient for most people: please make a note of the date now so that you can be there to help on the day!

S.SILAS SICK LIST is due for one of its occasional revisions. If you would like the names to remain on it, please initial them on the list at the back of Church, and add any further names to that same list.

PLEASE PRAY FOR all those on our sick lists especially Virginia White, Janet Gillam, Fr James Brown, Isabel Bolster (baby), Colin Baker, Helen Zazzara, Guy BurrIDGE, Derek Aburn, George Wilce and Anna Awiru; for victims of the earthquake in Haiti; for peace in the world and especially for those fighting in Afghanistan; for the unemployed; for Holy Trinity and S.
